

HOMEWORK REVIEW QUESTIONS - CHAPTER VIII

1. In criminology, this type of crime is associated with illegal activities committed by individuals of a higher social class.
2. During a corporate security fact-finding phase of an investigation, there are four considerations that might be viable. Describe them.
3. What special precautions must be taken with cell-phone evidence?
4. List four issues involving the transportation of electronic evidence.
5. Why must a power source be available for electronic evidence that is kept in storage?